Welcome to the 28th season of music with the Northwest’s premier professional chamber orchestra. Our unique artistic partner model evolves with the announcement of celebrated maestro David Lockington as our Principal Artistic Partner. The orchestra also welcomes Israeli-born conductor Yaniv Attar as a new Artistic Partner. The creative vision of these leaders, combined with programs designed and led by members of the Sinfonietta, celebrate the chamber orchestra’s range of musical experiences. From classic Bach and Tchaikovsky to the celebrated contemporary composers Caroline Shaw and Jennifer Higdon, this season will take you on an adventure of discovery. Select your seat, subscribe to a seat, and join us!

Special programs in each city:

Enjoy an intimate program curated by members of the Northwest Sinfonietta, featuring Tchaikovsky’s beloved Serenade for Strings. The first half of the program includes the works listed below. Full season subscriptions include the program in your city, with the flexibility to move to a different concert of your choice.
